"Lily is very helpful and gets straight to the heart of the matter. She made it easy for us to understand the process and its intricacies." - Chambers and Partners, 2023

Lily is a partner in our Corporate Department. Her practice focuses on property, estate and private client matters. Prior to joining the firm, Lily was a lecturer at the Cayman Islands Law School, where she taught company and banking law as well as property conveyancing. Lily is also licensed (non-practicing) as an attorney in the province of Ontario, Canada. Lily migrated from Toronto, Canada in 1995 to Cayman and joined Campbells in 2013. Lily is a member of the Cayman Islands Legal Practitioners Association and 100 Women in Hedge Funds. Outside of her work at Campbells, Lily enjoys mentoring interns and is highly involved with the real estate community in Cayman.
