“Her language capabilities, experience assisting clients in mainland China and ability to lead and coordinate different teams within the firm, helped single her out as the go-to person.” – Chambers & Partners, 2025

Jenny is a partner in our Corporate Department and is based in our Hong Kong office. She is also the Head of PRC Group and is responsible for the China practice of the firm. Jenny joined us in 2018 and specialises in all areas of corporate transactions including capital market transactions, mergers & acquisitions, take-private deals and downstream private equity financing and investment deals.

Jenny has extensive experience in representing issuers, arrangers and investors in connection with pre-IPO financings and listing of BVI and Cayman Islands companies on global stock exchanges, including Hong Kong and New York.

In addition to her corporate practice, Jenny also has significant expertise in advising international banks, financial institutions, leasing companies and corporations on bank finance and debt capital market transactions.

Prior to joining Campbells, Jenny worked in Hong Kong for two other international offshore law firms, as a partner.
