Jenny is a partner in our corporate and finance practice group in our Hong Kong office. She is also the Head of PRC Group and delivers key services for the China practice of the firm. Jenny specialises in corporate transactions including capital market transactions, mergers & acquisitions, take-private deals and downstream private equity financing and investment deals. Jenny has extensive experience in representing issuers, arrangers and investors in connection with pre-IPO financings and listing of BVI and Cayman Islands companies on global stock exchanges, including Hong Kong and New York.

In addition to her corporate practice, Jenny also has significant expertise in advising international banks, financial institutions, leasing companies and corporations on bank finance and debt capital market transactions.

Prior to joining Campbells, Jenny worked in Hong Kong for two other international offshore law firms, as a partner.

Jenny is “good at considering and solving problems from the client’s side,” and is “very creative in dealing with complicated legal issues.”
– Asian Legal Business 2017

Jenny “can communicate with the onshore counsel and clients very effectively to ensure smooth transactional process. She always comes up with innovative and practical solutions to resolve the clients’ problems.”
