

Demi McLean

Associate

D + 1345 914 5883, C +1 345 526 5883

E demimclean@campbellslegal.com

Demi is now associate in our Litigation, Insolvency & Restructuring Group and is developing a broad-based practice specialising in civil, commercial and insolvency litigation. Demi also advises on family law matters with a focus on contentious ancillary relief proceedings in high net worth matrimonial cases.

Demi joined Campbells in January 2018 when she commenced her Articles of Clerkship. During her Articles with Campbells, Demi also completed a secondment with a leading commercial and chancery chambers in the UK and assisted as a Judicial Clerk in the Grand Court of the Cayman Islands, where she was exposed to cases spanning a wide range of legal areas.

Demi is now an associate in the Litigation, Insolvency & Restructuring Group and is developing a broad-based practice specialising in civil, commercial and insolvency litigation. Demi also advises on family law matters with a focus on contentious ancillary relief proceedings in high net worth matrimonial cases.

Qualifications and Admissions

- Attorney-at-Law, Cayman Islands, 2019
- Postgraduate in Legal Practice with Distinction, BPP University, 2017
- Graduate Diploma in Law, BPP University, 2016
- Bachelors of Science in Criminal Justice and Legal Assistant Studies, University of Tennessee at Chattanooga, 2012

Associations

- 100 Women in Finance
- Cayman Islands Legal Practitioners Associations

Prior Career History

- XXIV Old Buildings (Pupil)

- Cayman Islands Judicial Administration (Judicial Clerk)
- Cayman Islands Government