Kate is an associate in our Corporate Department. Prior to joining Campbells, Kate practised at a leading global law firm in London where she advised clients on a range of corporate and commercial matters including M&A, joint ventures, corporate restructuring, contractual matters and general corporate governance.

Kate has worked with a diverse range of international clients, including large listed corporates, start-ups, privately owned businesses, family offices, high net-worth individuals and institutional investors. Her experience covers a variety of sectors, including real estate, technology, insurance, facilities management and health care. Kate has undertaken client secondments in London for a listed multinational utility company and a leading professional services firm along with a secondment to a tech start up in Kuala Lumpur. She is therefore used to advising clients on transactions with cross-border and multi-jurisdictional elements and is adept at providing pragmatic, commercially focused advice.
