Shaun is a Senior Associate in Campbells' Litigation and Insolvency group. Shaun represents investment funds, directors, trustees, professional firms and their insurers in high-value litigation and arbitration. He is an expert in professional liability and is the author of Don't Shoot the Advisor: A defence lawyer's guide to protecting your position and preventing lawsuits.

Areas of Practice and Expertise

- Commercial litigation – advice and advocacy in a wide range of high-value disputes, including obtaining interim relief (such as anti-suit injunctions) and bringing enforcement proceedings in respect of foreign judgments and arbitral awards
- Professional liability litigation – defending professional firms and their insurers against multi-million dollar negligence claims, and successfully defending HSBC against a $2 billion claim brought by Primeo Fund (in liquidation) in respect of the Bernard Madoff fraud
- Fiduciary services litigation – defending offshore directors against claims for breach of duty, including a $150m lawsuit arising from the collapse of an offshore investment fund
- Insolvency litigation – acting for liquidators and creditors in contested insolvency proceedings, including hedge fund redemption disputes
- Fraud and regulatory investigations – including advising a multinational company in respect of a UK Serious Fraud Office investigation into the UN Iraqi Oil-for-Food scandal
- Trusts litigation – acting for professional trustees in a $300+ million dispute
- Insurance litigation – advising upon policy coverage disputes
