

George Connolly

Associate

D +1 345 914 5854, C +1 345 327 5854
E gconnolly@campbellslegal.com

George is an associate in our Litigation, Insolvency & Restructuring Department in the Cayman Islands office. He brings extensive experience in handling complex commercial disputes and investigations, having acted for both government and commercial clients in high-stakes litigation matters.

Prior to joining Campbells, he was a solicitor in the commercial litigation group at Corrs Chambers Westgarth in Melbourne, Australia. During his time at Corrs Chambers Westgarth, George gained experience in Court processes and understanding clients' commercial priorities.

George is known for his strategic approach and ability to provide clear commercial solutions to clients.

Expertise

- Commercial Litigation
- Contract and Tort Disputes
- Competition and Consumer Law
- Insurance Litigation and Advisory

Work Highlights

(Prior to joining Campbells)

- Acted for a stockbroking firm in a multimillion-dollar claim in the Federal Court of Australia against former employees for theft of confidential information.
- Acted for a law firm in proceedings regarding an unlawful mortgage lending practice under which an estimated $100 million of investment funds were misappropriated.
- Acted for the Australian Competition and Consumer law regulator to secure substantial penalties in a misleading and deceptive conduct proceeding in the Federal Court of Australia.

- Acted for a publicly listed packaging company in a $100m+ proceeding in an Australian state court regarding environmental consultancy advice, achieving a pre-trial settlement.

Qualifications and Admissions

- Attorney at Law, Cayman Islands, 2025
- Solicitor, Supreme Court of Victoria, 2021
- Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice, 2021
- Juris Doctor, Monash University, 2020
- Bachelor of Arts, University of Melbourne, 2017

Prior Career History

- Corrs Chambers Westgarth, 2020 – 2025
- William Roberts Lawyers, 2019

Professional Associations

- RISA
- Law Institute of Victoria