About

Jane Hale is a partner in our Litigation, Insolvency & Restructuring Group where she specialises in commercial litigation with a particular focus on fund disputes and partnership and shareholder disputes. She also specialises in contentious and non-contentious cross-border insolvencies and restructurings, advising insolvency practitioners, stakeholders and creditors in a range of distressed and insolvent situations.

Jane obtained her double bachelor's degree in Law & Criminology in Queensland, Australia. She then spent nearly four years living and working in London and then another four years in the Cayman Islands, before moving to Hong Kong. Jane joined Campbells in 2019.

"Jane is very experienced, professional and technical."
