Work Highlights

(Prior to joining Campbells)

- Advising the voluntary administrators of the Clough Group in a large and complex administration featuring Western Australia's oldest engineering and construction firm. Successfully restructured and sold the Australian Clough business to global construction player Webuild, ultimately saving over 1000 jobs and securing a future for various projects critical to Australia's energy infrastructure.
- Advising the voluntary administrators of Probuild in a large and complex administration featuring Australia's largest construction company. Successfully implemented a recapitalisation plan that ultimately preserved $2b of construction contracts, created more than $270m in value, and saved over 475 jobs.
- Settled three Supreme Court proceedings concerning the management and administration of two corporate trustees whose interests were intertwined with a large corporate group involved in property development and agri-business valued at over $100M.
