

Natasha Partos

Counsel

d. +1 345 914 5888

c. +1 345 516 5888

About

Natasha is counsel in our Litigation, Insolvency & Restructuring Group where she specialises in commercial litigation, regulatory and employment law as well as having experience in a wide a variety of contractual disputes and tortious claims.

Natasha obtained her bachelor's degree in History from Clare College, Cambridge University (UK). Thereafter, Natasha completed her legal training in London and in 2012 was called to the Bar of England and Wales. Before practising in Grand Cayman Natasha was a member of two leading sets of Chambers in the UK where she gained extensive advocacy experience in all areas of her practice. Natasha joined Campbells in 2018.

Experience

- Commercial and Insolvency
- Trusts
- Regulatory Law
- Employment Law
- Insurance
- Contract and Tort

Natasha regularly publishes articles and speaks at seminars on issues relating to her main areas of expertise.

Qualifications and admissions

- Admitted as a Barrister of the Eastern Caribbean Supreme Court (British Virgin Islands) 2019
 - Attorney at Law Cayman Islands, 2018
 - Barrister: admitted to the Bar of England and Wales, 2012 (non-practising)
 - Bar Professional Training Course – Kaplan Law School, 2012
 - Graduate Diploma in Law – City University, 2011
 - Clare College, University of Cambridge BA (Hons) History, 2009
-

Professional associations

- The Honorable Society of the Middle Temple 2012
- 100 Women in Finance
- IWIRC