

It is with profound sadness yet with hearts full of appreciation that the family of Peter Kandiah
announce his passing on Saturday 9 March 2024.

Peter departed this world surrounded by his loving family at his home in South Sound, leaving behind a legacy of boundless generosity and love.

Peter was a treasured husband, father, and grandfather whose huge heart and unwavering kindness touched the lives of so many people. Known for his incredible generosity, both in his personal life and through his charity work, Peter lived a life helping others, and he felt strongly that those who could, should help those in need.

He is survived by his loving wife Julia, his children Jeremy and Katie, and his cherished grandchildren, Byron, Carla, Max and Luna. Peter's spirit of giving and his love for his family will forever be remembered by those who had the privilege of knowing him.

In addition to his generous spirit, Peter Kandiah was deeply respected for his work in the legal field. He quietly became one of the pioneering figures in the Cayman Islands helping shape the landscape of the legal industry, contributing thoughtfully and effectively to its growth and integrity. Peter was known for his quick-witted humour, integrity, diligence, and the respectful way he engaged with both his work and his colleagues.

He and his wife Julia arrived in Cayman in January 1974 and have spent the last 50 years happily settled in South Sound where both their children were born. Peter was the Senior Partner of Bruce Campbell and Co. (Campbell's) for many years.

As we remember Peter, let us carry forward his legacy of kindness, generosity and love. His memory will continue to inspire us to live our lives with the same compassion and dedication that he embodied.
